

The Building

Artwork is in Latimer House. The outside looks like this.

To the left of the door are buzzers please press the Artswork button. (3rd on the left). Once answered speak into the intercom describing who you are here to meet.

The inside lobby looks like this.

Cross this space to the next set of doors and head up to the first floor.

First floor stairs

There is a landing door

Go through this and turn left where you will find Artswork's office

This is the Artswork foyer

The room you will be meeting in looks like this

And we have another space we may use

Outside of the office on the first floor there are toilets. Men's Toilets are out to the left of the landing door from our office

Women's toilets are to the right of the landing door from our office.
